Everything is yellow, red, orange. Everything is chilly, frisky, gusty. Everything is changing, turning. It's the middle of fall. Can you see it? Can you taste it? Can you smell it? Can you imagine it?

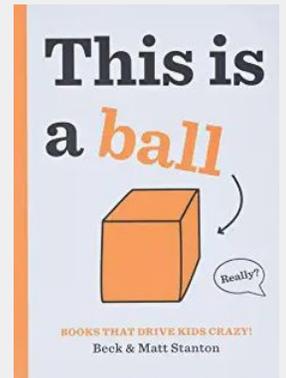

Moving to a new city can be exciting. But what if your new home isn't anything like your old home? Will you make friends? What will you eat? Where will you play?

Elephants are great at many things...playing hide-and-seek is not one of them. A hilarious tongue-in-cheek book perfect for elephants and their best human pals. See this silly elephant game of hide and seek, and all its handy tips and tricks for hiding!

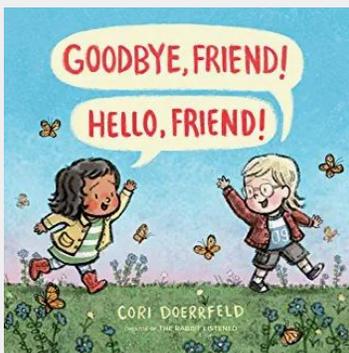

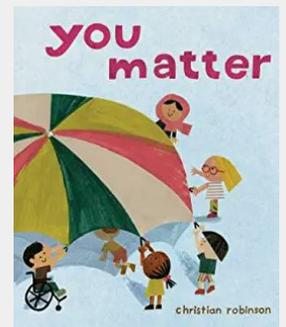

This is a gorgeous, lyrical ode to loving who you are, respecting others, and being kind to one another. We are all here for a purpose. We are more than enough. We just need to believe it.

Meet Triangle. He is going to play a sneaky trick on his friend, Square. Or so Triangle thinks. . .

Mama's brown is chocolate, clear, dark, and sweet. Daddy's brown is autumn leaf, or like a field of wheat. Granny's brown is like honey, and Papa's like caramel. In this loving and lovely ode to the color brown, a boy describes the many beautiful hues of his family, including his own—gingerbread.

In this full, bright, and beautiful picture book, young readers will be drawn into the luminous illustrations inviting them to engage with the world in a new way and see how everyone is connected, and that everyone matters.

Change and transitions are hard, but Goodbye, Friend! Hello, Friend! demonstrates how, when one experience ends, it opens the door for another to begin
